1. About the middle of June approximately 400 Yugoslav volunteer workers arrived in Sofia. It was planned to use these workers to build the new railroad line from Pernik to Volujak (Radomir region).
2. Bulgarian workers have recently been sent to Yugoslavia to be used for the building of the New Yugoslavia. They will be replaced after 45 days by others of their comrades.
3. The uniform of the Bulgarian and Yugoslav workers is the same, blue in color. Their badge, six cm. in diameter, is round and is made of white cloth. On it are depicted a pick-axe and shovel in red surrounded by a gear wheel, and around that are the words "We Build".
4. This interchange of workers is interpreted by Bulgarian propaganda as indicating the friendship of the peoples of the Balkans and the strengthening of the relations among them.
